

5} Every Customer is linked with an account using id, where account cannot exist without a customer, so its composition. Every account has a shopping cart & order & order is associated to items which are placed in the shopping cart. Items are aggregated with products which is generalised into various classifications. The account, payment for the order to the bill is linked by association.